FANZTS (Allied health)

Criteria for Allied Health (AH) professionals to apply for an Associate Fellow or Fellow Australian & New Zealand Trauma Society (ANZTS) in the Trauma Allied Health Category.

Please provide documented evidence as outlined below to admin@anzts.com.au

Mandatory

- Letter of recommendation from either a Fellow ANZTS (FANZTS), a ANZTS Director, or two members of ANZTS
- ANZTS membership for at least 2 years
- Full attendance at Australian or NZ National Trauma conference, at least 2 in the past 5 years
- Hold a position as trauma AH professional for the last 5 years
    - Letter of appointment or position description
    - Professional CV
- Relevant AH professional undergraduate degree
- AH professional body registration (evidenced by current annual practicing certificate)
- Accumulated minimum > 10 points from below options: appointment for Associate Fellow
- Accumulated minimum > 15 points from below options: appointment for Fellow

Current Professional Memberships (excl ANZTS) (max 5 points – one per membership) For example; Physiotherapy New Zealand, Australian Physiotherapy Association, Trauma association of Canada, ANZICS etc

Role Experience in Trauma (max 5 points)

- Trauma lead in your discipline = 2 point
- Trauma lead across your service (across disciplines) = 3 points
- AH Trauma lead statewide/region = 4 points
- AH Trauma lead national = 5 points

Courses / Education (max 5 points)

Trauma specific course/education in last 12 months (1 point per course)

Trauma service improvement (max 5 points)

- Documented evidence of leading discipline or cross disciple specific trauma QI work (1 point per project)

Relevant Post Graduate qualifications in trauma related course work or research (max 5 points)

- Post Graduate Certificate (1 point)
- Post Graduate Diploma (2 points)
- Masters (3 points)
- PhD (5 points)

Trauma Conference Presentations in last 5 years (max 10)

- Abstract / Poster (1 point each)
- Invited / keynote speaker (2 points each)

Trauma Publications (max 6)

- Primary author (3 points each)
- Additional author (1 point each)

ONGOING APPOINTMENT: Subsequent year appointment requires evidence of at least 5 points in any category to maintain AH Fellowship status.

Approved: ANZTS BOD September 2026